DEATH OF MRS. DOUGLAS M'BRYDE

Interment Will Take Place at Hind Homestead in Kohala.

Mrs. Douglas McBryde, formerly Miss Mollie Hind of Kohala, Hawaii, died last evening at the McBryde residence on Green street, after an illness lasting eight days. The death is a shocking bereavement to the young husband, who is left with the care of their infant child, which is only ten days old. All day long the life of the young wife slowly ebbed away until at sundown only feeble pulsations told that she was alive. Surrounded by many relatives she breathed her last shortly after 8 o'clock.

The remains will be taken to Kohala, accompanied by the husband, and the interment will take place on the old Hawi estate, owned by the late Robert Hind, on which she was born. Funeral services will be held at the McBryde residence on Green street at 1 p. m. today.

Mrs. McBryde's death was due to heart failure brought on largely by a cold which she contracted about ten days ago.

Mrs. McBryde was the daughter of the late Robert R. Hind of Kohala, Hawaii, where she was born twenty-six years ago. She was married to Mr. McBryde at the Hind homestead on July 27, 1899, and has since resided in Honolulu. Besides her husband and infant, Mrs. McBryde's relatives are her mother, who is at present in San Francisco. Her sister, Miss Eleanor Hind, is with the mother. George Hind of the firm of Hind, Rolph & Co. of San Francisco, is believed to be on his way to Honolulu from San Francisco and is expected to arrive here Friday in the Alameda. John, Robert and James Hind, three brothers who are living in Kohala, were notified yesterday by wireless telegraph of the dangerous illness of their sister and were requested to ride across country and overtake the Mauna Loa which is due here this morning. If the message reached them it is probable they caught the steamer and are now on the way here.

Mr. McBryde is a brother-in-law of Paul Isenberg and W. A. Kinney.

CHINESE ALSO INVESTIGATE

Opium and Slavery Charges Made Against Yang Wei Pin and Vice Consul.

The Sun Chung Kweck Bo, the Chinese newspaper, received from its Shanghai correspondent what purports to be a copy of an imperial decree directing an investigation of the charges against the Honolulu Consul, Yang Wei Pin.

The document is dated September 9th and a translation follows:

"Censor Kwan Yung Jar has presented memorials against the Chinese Consul and Vice-Consul at Honolulu, to this court, with charges preferred against them, namely: Offensive partisanship, corrupt practices, humiliation to the nation and troubles to Chinese subjects; and the censor begs to discharge them from further service as consuls at Honolulu, and that a Minister residing in a foreign country be telegraphed to, to investigate the charges in order to promote the national civilization and to protect the interests of the merchants at said place.

"In consideration of the above charges, this Court has to state that the appointment of consuls to foreign countries is to protect the interests of merchants and laborers. But instead of acting thus righteously, the consuls at Honolulu, according to the further statement of the said censor, have bought and sold slaves and smuggled opium into the port of Honolulu, actions dishonorable and unbecoming gentlemen.

"Now this court has commissioned Prince Choy Chun, our Special Ambassador to the Coronation of King Edward VII, to appoint a Commissioner residing in the vicinity of the said consuls for the purpose of investigating the facts of the charges. Such Commissioner must take immediate steps for such investigation, and must not be biased.

"This is a transaction touching the national honor, and every fact must come to light that foreign peoples shall not have cause to denounce us.

"The charges will be made out in duplicate and mailed to Prince Chun, and this decree wired to him for his information. This Court herein orders a cabinet officer to certify the above to Prince Choy Chun for action at once."

Odd Fellows in Manila.

An enthusiastic and largely attended meeting of Odd Fellows was held in the Redmen's hall last night for the purpose of organizing an Odd Fellows club, which will eventually be merged into a regular lodge of Odd Fellows. The officers of the new organization are Hugh S. Braze, president; J. F. Kennedy, secretary, and B. Lipke, treasurer. It is proposed to hold meetings of the club in the Redmen's hall every Thursday evening, and every Odd Fellow in Manila is earnestly requested to attend. Mr. Charles Burrit, who is now in the United States, is expected to arrive in Manila about the first of January and he will bring the charter for the new lodge with him. Over twenty members of the order now in Manila have signed the application for the charter. Every effort is being made by the Odd Fellows in the Philippines to keep the sentiment alive, and they are succeeding admirably.—Manila Bulletin.
